

*NEW CODE OF CONDUCT AND CODE OF DISCIPLINE

Code of Conduct

Every member* with Baseball Regina is expected to represent themselves, their team and Baseball Regina in an appropriate manner. Any behavior that is determined to be inappropriate is reason for and may lead to expulsion from Baseball Regina without refund of fees for the remainder of the season. Baseball Regina Executive members reserve the right to implement disciplinary measures.

All members are to respect the rules, their fellow teammates, coaches, opponents and officials at all baseball functions in which they are participants.

All parents/guardians are to observe a 24-hour waiting period before contacting coaches, team or league officials with any complaint.

All members are to not use profane language, ridicule or speak in a derogatory fashion or use physical violence at any time while representing Baseball Regina.

All members are to not question the game official's judgment or honesty, only the head coach has the ability to question an official.

If a conflict arises at the team level between a parent/guardian, athlete and coach that can not be resolved, the first form of resolution will be a meeting between the parent/guardian, athlete and team manager. Should there be no resolution to the issue the parent/guardian, athlete or coach must provide a written complaint to Baseball Regina and request a meeting with the team manager and the Division Director.

All written complaints will be dealt with according to Baseball Regina's By-Laws.

Unsportsmanlike behavior is taken very seriously by Baseball Regina. Baseball Regina shall utilize the Code of Discipline to manage unsportsmanlike behavior.

* Member includes all players, their families and coaches.

Code of Discipline

- a) Applies to all season play.
- b) If Baseball Regina finds that the behavior of the player or coach warrants a more stringent suspension, they can change the suspension accordingly.
- c) Minimum Suspensions can be increased but not decreased.
- d) Coaches are responsible for knowing and following the BR Code of Discipline.
- e) All player and coach ejections in league, tournament and exhibition games must be dealt with immediately by the coach, and reported to the Division Director within 48 hours of the ejection or before the next scheduled game, whichever is earlier. Coaches failing to notify the Division Director are subject to suspension.
- f) Coaches must inform the opposing coaches that a player is suspended. Any players on suspension are expected to attend the game(s) but are not allowed to interact with their team and must remain in the stands.
- g) Failure of a coach to sit a suspended player will result in forfeiture of the game and suspension of the coach that allowed the suspended player to play.

Minimum Coach Suspensions:

One coach ejection – No action from Baseball Regina

Two coach ejections - Automatic suspension from the next scheduled game*

Three coach ejections – Automatic suspension of the coach for the remainder of the season

Minimum Player Suspensions:

One player ejection – No action from Baseball Regina

Two player ejections – Automatic suspension from play at the next scheduled game.*

Three player ejections - An automatic suspension from play for the next three scheduled games.*

Four player ejections – An automatic suspension for the remainder of the season

Once a game ejection has been applied the player or coach is on probation. Probation will be for the remainder of the season, including playoffs.

Good Behavior Clause: Should a player or coach go 30 days without ejection from a game, then one ejection is eliminated from their record. For example: If a player gets their first ejection on June 1st and does not get ejected from a game until July 2nd or after, then this next ejection would be considered his first.

* Regardless of whether the next game is during a tournament, a double-header or league game.

 Suspended until further review by Baseball Regina
